

Welcome to First Reformed Church

Absolutely everyone is invited to our worship, activities, and service.

If you are a first time visitor we hope you feel at home here. Please fill out a little white pew card and place it in the offering plate and join us in the room to the left of the front of the sanctuary after the service for coffee and refreshments.

Parking

You may park in any of the lots around the church or the Stockade Inn on Sunday mornings.

Need Help?

Large print bulletins and audio receivers are available to assist you. Please ask an usher. Special bulletins for children are also available. Restrooms are located out the front right doorway of the sanctuary.

Child Care on Sunday

Childcare for babies through age four is available between 10am and noon in Kinderwyk, which is located in the building near the church office entry.

Church School

On Communion Sundays (the first Sunday of the month) youth in grades 3-8 remain in the service to participate in Communion while those in grades K-2 are welcome to go upstairs after the Children's Message for music and crafts. Other Sundays all children are welcome to join in our Church School activities by leaving immediately after the Children's Message. Parents can pick up their children at 11:15am on the 2nd floor at the top of the stairs.

Elders in Worship

Past and current leaders we call 'elders' walk in together at the beginning of worship and sit in the front pew. This is to identify them as servants of the mission of the church and make it easy to see who you might talk to about the life of our congregation.

Communion

Our congregation celebrates the Lord's Supper on the first Sundays of the month. All followers of Christ are invited to share this meal.

After Worship

Typically after worship, people stop for a chat and a cookie in Assembly Hall before going to a learning opportunity that lasts until noon. Visitors are welcome to join in and are particularly encouraged to visit the Dirck Romeyn Room to the left of the sanctuary for five or ten minutes.

Joining the Congregation

To become a member of the congregation, there is a one-time orientation, a meeting with the governing board, and a reception in worship. If you are interested in the next orientation please fill out a white pew card.

Service Online

A recording of each of our worship services is at 1stReformed.com one or two days following the service.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (from the United Church of Canada)

We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM The Lord is My Shepherd Andrew Carter

The Lord is my shepherd, therefore can I lack nothing.
He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth
beside the waters of comfort.

The Lord is my shepherd, therefore can I lack nothing.
He shall convert my soul and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me:
Thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.
But thy loving kindness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Lenten Meditation

Douglas E. Wagner

Jesus, in thy dying woes, even while Thy lifeblood flows, craving pardon for thy foes: Hear us, Holy Jesus.

May our hearts to Thee incline, looking from our cross to Thine;
cheer our souls with hope divine: Hear us, Holy Jesus.

When we seem in vain to pray, and our hope seems far away;
In the darkness be our stay: Hear us, Holy Jesus.

May we thirst Thy love to know; Lead us in our sin and woe where the healing waters flow: Hear us, Holy Jesus.

Brighten all our heav'ward way with an ever holier ray till we pass to perfect day: Hear us, Holy Jesus.

May Thy life and death supply grace to live and grace to die, grace to reach our home on high: Hear us, Holy Jesus.

Easter Flowers

Each Easter, members of Chancel Guild adorn our church with beautiful Easter Flowers. Your family can contribute to remember a loved one or honor a loved one. Please send your suggested donation of $20 to Chancel Guild c/o Marlene Risseeuw, 2140 Niskayuna Drive, Niskayuna, NY 12309 and contact the Church Office with the name of the person the flowers are in honor or memory of. Even if you have donated in previous years, please place an order for 2011 by Monday, April 18. Thank you.

Easter Offering

The Mission & Benevolence committee has selected Roots and Wisdom, a youth agriculture and community program of Cornell Cooperative Extension of Schenectady County, (CCE, SC) as the recipient of our Easter Offering. Roots and Wisdom's mission is to engage the diverse population of Schenectady County – particularly youth – in serving their community through the support of a sustainable local food system. The program inspires teens to improve their community by instilling a sense of purpose and accomplishment in their actions, and serves as a unifying force within Schenectady County.

Roots and Wisdom is eligible to receive matching gifts from corporations. For those of you who have access to gift matching, please make checks payable to CCE, SC and note Roots and Wisdom in the memo. For matching gifts, CCE, SC's Federal Tax I.D. number is: 146036884. Otherwise, make them out to First Reformed Church with Easter offering – Roots & Wisdom in the memo line.

Celebratory or Memorial Flowers

The Chancel Guild has a flower calendar for 2011 on the right side of the Poling House entrance to the sanctuary. We encourage you to choose an open date for donating flowers to remember a loved one or to honor a special event such as an anniversary, birthday or graduation. After signing up on the calendar, please inform the office of your wishes so records can be kept correctly. If the date you want is already taken, it may be possible to share the chosen date by consulting with the other donor. The cost of the flowers is $30 for the two bouquets unless something special is requested. You may send your check for $30 payable to Chancel Guild, c/o Marlene Risseeuw, 2140 Niskayuna Dr., Niskayuna, NY 12309-4126.

Prayers of the People

Requests for prayer may be noted on a pew card and placed in the offering plate. We pray regularly for those who are ill, those who serve their country, those who hunger, and those who are our enemies. As part of our prayers this morning, we remember with thanksgiving members of this congregation who entered eternal rest in previous years about this time: Virginia Bard, Roberta Hambleton and Roy Peters.

If you are aware of a departed member, whose name has not been noted near the anniversary of their death, please speak with one of our ministers or contact the church office.

Faith Bookshop

The Bookshop recently received a catalogue from The Thoughtful Christian. It offers books on Christian living, religion and culture, spirituality, bible studies and more at greatly reduced prices. The titles are tantalizing (some even provocative), and many of the authors are well known in their field. This catalogue is available for your perusal on the table with our books relating to Lent. Please look it over, and if you find a book you would like The Shop to order for you, complete the relating order form and give it to the person at the Bookshop desk.

Johnson Library

Harvey Cox, Professor of Divinity at Harvard, in his book, The Future of Faith, describes how religious people are shifting their focus to ethical guidelines and spiritual disciplines, not doctrine. His book describes how community and social justice are becoming the new goals. Transforming Leadership by Leighton Ford is directed to executives, pastors, and professionals who want to look at leadership in a new light. The book includes a study guide for groups and individuals. Betty Goldberg's Traditional Jewish Cooking offers recipes from soup to nuts. Find out how to make those dishes you have heard about but never tried.

The SICM food pantry is most grateful for the children's books we gave them, donated by members of our congregation. If you have children's books in good condition and no longer in use, bring them in. We will see that they get to SICM. They are placed in food bags picked up by Schenectady's needy families.

Post Service Refreshments

There is a sign-up sheet in Assembly Hall to bring goodies of any sort to share at Post Service with everyone. Please bring your food around 9:30am, unless it is already set up on a platter.

God in the News Bible Study

Will break for the next several weeks. The class will resume May 1, the Sunday after Easter, returning to its original time slot of 11:15- 12pm. See you then!

Lenten Contemplative Communion

At 8pm a brief service of prayer, song, silence, and communion, fitting for this season, will be shared in the candle lit sanctuary.

Music Highlights for Lent and Easter

The fourth and fifth Sundays in Lent will feature two anthems by English composers sung by the Chancel Choir. Today, April 3 a wonderfully evocative version of the 23rd Psalm, The Lord is My Shepherd by Andrew Carter will be sung, and on April 10 the choir will sing John Ireland's Greater Love Hath No Man, one of the greatest English church anthems ever written.

On Palm Sunday our children and youth choirs will present Hosanna, Loud, Hosanna accompanied by organ and the Kirk Ringers, and the Chancel Choir will sing Ride On by Grayston Ives which is an alternative musical depiction of the text of the familiar hymn, Ride On, Ride On in Majesty.

Maundy Thursday service participants will hear When You Woke that Thursday Morning, accompanied by guest flutist, Emily Peterson.

Our Easter anthems and hymns will be accompanied by brass quartet with the Tower Ringers joining the choir for the introit and the anthem, Now the Green Blade Rises, arranged to the French carol tune, Noël Nouvelet.

Group V

"God works in mysterious ways, His wonders to perform...", as Group V is finding out in its study of the book, God's Ordinary People. On Monday, April 4, at 11am, we will meet for a short business meeting, followed by a discussion of the second chapter of the book with Mary Carlson leading the discussion. Bring a sandwich; dessert and beverages will be provided. The Group V devotional books are available in the book shop and from Group V members; the books make useful and thoughtful gifts for any occasion.

Group VII

On Friday, April 15 at 11:30am Group VII will meet for small lunches at the homes of Ronnie Bartholic, Mary Jewett, Gini McDermott and Connie Young.

Vacation Bible School

Looking for something to do over Spring Break? Don't let your kids be bored! SPRING VBS will keep them busy with drama, songs, games & crafts. A healthy snack will be provided each day. VBS will meet April 18-22 from 3-5pm. Kids from 5 - 95 are welcome (helpers too!). Please call the church office to register 377-2201.

Sharon Swain is having a book signing at Open Door April 30. She has written the second in a series of children's books.

College Bound??

Applications for the Rev. Al Smith Education Scholarship are available through the Church Office. Please submit your completed application to the Church Office by May 15th. Questions can be directed to Sara Erickson at 374-4161 or ericksonhs@aol.com.

Wales Brown to Lead Book Review

Wales Brown (Social Justice Committee of the First Reformed Church) will be co-leading a book review of Jesus, the Bible and Homosexuality: Explode the Myths, Heal the Church, written by Jack Rogers, 2009. Rogers is a Presbyterian Minister and Reformed theologian who spent years studying and researching the Church's discriminatory practices in regard to people that identify as Gay, Lesbian, Bi-sexual and Transgendered (GLBT). Through his scholarly research and personal journey of exploration, Rogers helps readers to see how the hate-filled rhetoric of the debate about homosexuality clouds the central message of Christ's redemptive ministry. He has come to believe and shows readers how people of faith have not always had the information and support they need to counteract the inaccurate things they have been told about the Bible as it relates to people that are GLBT.

The classes will be held on Wednesday evenings May 4, 11, 18, 25 June 1, 8 and 15 from 7-8:30pm at the First Reformed Church of Schenectady. There is no fee for the class. Each person should have a copy of the book so that they can complete the readings for each week. The book was republished in 2009 and has an accompanying leader's guide that will be used to facilitate the group. You will need to reserve a space as the group is limited in size. You can call Wales Brown at 518-701-1927 or email wbrown6@nycap.rr.com to make a reservation. Books will be available at the FRC Faith Bookstore or by making arrangements with Wales; books will also be available at Barnes & Noble at the Mohawk Commons.

The Covenant of Our Congregation
Adopted in 1962

We do hereby set forth the principles of the Christian faith as commonly held among us, believing that no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

It shall be our aim to bring joy to little children, instruction and high ideals to youth, inspiration to men and women in the midst of life, and comfort to those in life's later years; and to labor together for the betterment of humankind.

Our fellowship shall not be dependent upon identity of theological opinion, or of outward circumstance, or of denominational concern, but shall grow from a common loyalty to Jesus, a common commitment to serve the world we touch, and a common purpose to do justly, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with God.

Our ideal is a church of the open mind, the warm heart, the hopeful spirit, and the social vision which ever seeks to express, in all walks of life, the mind of Jesus.

April 3, 2011

*We take our tottering steps to God
as if they are our first full of fear and wonder*

*While God strides towards us
catching us

in time*
